Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-30,60-72 are drawn to subject matter for participating in virtual communities and user databases, classified in class 707, subclass 2.
 - II. Claims 31-36 are drawn to subject matter for online connection using proxies, classified in class 707, subclass 10.
 - III. Claims 37-39 are drawn to subject matter for installing toolbars or menus for resource access, classified in class 707, subclass 104.1.
 - IV. Claims 40-43 are drawn to subject matter for monitoring web requests and managing connections, classified in class 707, subclass 9.
 - V. Claims 44-59 are drawn to subject matter for browser plugin objects which provide shared access, classified in class 707, subclass 5.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I,II,III, IV and V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. The subcombinations have separate utility such as participating in online communities, proxy connections, toolbars and menus, monitoring and managing connection, and browser plugins. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for any one group is not required for any other group, respectively, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record, listed on form PTO-892, and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
